Match the number for each friendly face at the High Desert Museum with what they are saying.

"My super sight and silent flight help me hunt at night. WHOOO am I?"

"Welcome to the High Desert, the place I call home. High above the desert floor is where I roam."

"Instead of using lungs, I breathe through my gills. Some catch me for food and some just for thrills."

"A dragon can never tremble in fear. When I'm afraid I simply puff up my beard."

"You won't want to tickle me because my quills are so prickly!"

"We work all day around here since life is hard on the frontier."

"Better stop your laggin' if you want to ride in my wagon!"

"An eagle's wingspan is wider than mine! I'll check out his nest to see what I find."

"I love to play all day in my water park, and my whiskers help me find food after dark."
